

Call for Applications for the 2014-2015 Fulbright Junior Staff Development Program

The Public Affairs Section of the U.S. Embassy in Mauritius is pleased to announce the annual call for applications for the Fulbright Junior Staff Development (JSD) Program for the 2014/2015 academic year.

Grantees selected for degree study will be funded for a maximum of 2 years. All awards are contingent upon approval by the J. William Fulbright Scholarship Board (FSB), availability of funds, and successful academic placement.

1. Awards are granted as follows:

- 1 to 2 years of study towards one degree only - Master's or Ph.D. (Eligible grantees may apply for one renewal grant); or
- Participation in an academic year (9-10 months) non-degree research program. (Grants are not renewable).

2. Field of Study

We welcome applications in all fields of study. However, preference will be given to priority fields of study determined by the Government of Mauritius and available on the Ministry of Education and Human Resources website:

<http://ministry-education.gov.mu>.

Note: The JSD Program does not apply for Medicine, Law, Veterinary and Architecture.

3. Eligibility Requirements:

- Nominees must be citizens or nationals of Mauritius, or permanent residents holding a valid passport issued by the Republic of Mauritius.
- Nominees must have at least a bachelor's degree recognized by U.S. universities. Please note that a minimum standard of Second Class Second Division is required for a Master's degree.

- Nominees should have a sufficient level of English proficiency to enable them to realistically accomplish full-time graduate level study in the U.S.
- Nominees must meet the minimum score on required standardized tests (For the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL), a score of 575/90 is desirable; however, we recommend individuals aim for 600/100. For the General Record Examinations (GRE): 1000 minimum and the Graduate Management Admission Test (GMAT): 550 minimum).
- Nominees should have a high motivation and a serious commitment to completing the program as scheduled and to returning home.
- Preference will be given to nominees with no U.S. educational experience.
- A Master's degree is required for Ph.D. and non-degree research program.
- No applicant shall receive more than one Fulbright Student Program grant.

4. Mode of Application

Applications should be made online at:

<https://apply.embark.com/student/fulbright/international/20/>

by Wednesday, July 31, 2013 at latest.

A complete application includes:

- (1) Duly filled Application Form (please specify 2014-2015 cycle when you apply)
- (2) Official transcripts with the degree certificates;
- (3) English translations of official documents where applicable
- (4) Three references with at least 2 of them being academic
- (5) Study Objectives and Personal Statements
- (6) Portfolios on extracurricular activities are welcome. These together with documents which could not be uploaded can be sent to:

*Re: Fulbright Junior Staff Development Program
The Public Affairs Section
Embassy of the United States of America
Rogers House, 4th Floor, John Kennedy Street
Port Louis*

Only shortlisted candidates will be called for interview at which time, the originals of all documents must be produced. Incomplete applications will not be considered. Candidates must be available to go to the U.S. Embassy for an interview at which time originals of all documents must be produced.

